Outline of what is on Paul's heart as he signs off:

Colossians 4:7-9 - The _____ is critical and should remind us that each of us is a messenger on a _____ for God in our sphere of _____.

Colossians 4:10-11 - Jewish believers: Our _____ matter.

Colossians 4:12-14 - Gentile believers: _____ matter.

Colossians 4:15-18 - We need to be reminded to _____ and _____.

Conclusions: There is no long term ministry without _____. These listed men demonstrate the importance of obeying God's call in church life for the blessing of God's people.

There are no _____ servants who serve God and his people.

There is no service so insignificant that it has no _____ value.

There is no service _____ a servant of the Lord.

There is no servant who is less than a _____ of the King and a _____ for all time.

Paul's final words remind us that in God's economy there are no _____;
only _____.

In the family of God there should be hearts that are growing _____ towards the kingdom of God and the family of God; this is the nature of ministry and nothing is too great a sacrifice for God and his people. Everyone has a _____, everyone has a _____ while all serve the Master, the only one who can _____ change a life.
