

Jesus & Relationships

Mark 3:7-35

Jesus & Popularity: Mark 1:34—be _____. Mark 1:37-39—he _____.
Jesus directs them to the primary reason he has come—to bring _____ and spiritual healing to lost souls (2:17).

Jesus & Crowds - Mark 3:7-12 - _____ - Mark 1:35-39

Precept: The one we serve is greater than the work we do for him; therefore _____ ; then _____.

Conclusion: There must be a personal priority to be with _____ ; to listen and communicate and this is vital for those who minister to others.

Precept: If we do not serve God from the _____ of Christ in us; we will burn out and grow weary in well-doing.

Jesus, Disciples & Family - Mark 3:13-21; 31-35 - What does Jesus do to _____ ?

Relationships - Mark 3:20-35 - What is it like to _____ to something?

The source of Jesus' power - Mark 3:22-30 - Blasphemy against the _____,
_____, _____.

Conclusion: All human relationships are changed by _____.

_____, to be with God and listen, is vital to a rich relationship with _____ and
_____.

The more talented and skilled we are the more time we should spend with the
'_____'.
_____.

As I mature in Christ I find that my relationships that are rooted in Christ grow and nurture me and my non-Christian relationships _____.

Jesus uses two different methods as he confronts hostile scribes and a misunderstanding family.
He _____ with the scribes; and _____ 'true family'.